

Mike Weil
Vice President
Hall-Erickson, Inc.

Mike Weil is Vice President of Hall-Erickson, Inc. In his role, he manages large, growing, events and is responsible for driving return on investment related to the technology sector and safety industry.

Over the last 20 years, he has worked in multiple capacities on events including marketing, sales, operations, and client services. He has corporate responsibilities which includes improving results of the eighteen events Hall-Erickson manages. He is also known for his ability to motivate and develop teams by setting clear goals and striving to build sales achievements for each of Hall-Erickson's clients.