Hobbies & Interests:

Various types of working out, spending time with friends and family, involvement in the Alzheimer's Assn, anything outdoors, dancing and trying new bars and restaurants in the city

Professional Background/Experience

I have been part of the Hyatt Family for over 30 years. I started at the HR Chicago as a sales assistant then moved on to the Hyatt Lincolnwood as a Sales Manager. I have been involved in both MPI and PCMA for over 25 years holding various Committee and Board positions. I was awarded the MPI Rising Star Award and the MPI Supplier of the Year Award. Moving on to the HR O'Hare, HR Chicago and National Sales with Hyatt, I began working with more Associations in the Northeast Market and the Chicago Area Market. I held the VP of Membership position for PCMA and helped launch the PCMA GMC Ambassador and Mentor Programs and I was the chair for the 2015 Sponsorship Committee. I received a Certificate of Appreciation from PCMA Education Foundation for serving on the Dinner Celebration Professional Achievement Committee. I was a member of Association Forum of Chicago (CSAE) and was the VP of Programs for Hospitality Sales and Marketing Association (HSMIA) and received an Appreciation Award. In addition to this I received the Dick Daignault Award from the GMC PCMA in 2014. I have been a mentor to young sales people as well as those starting their career right out of college. I have been the recipient of the Sales Manager of the Year Award as well as nominated for the Worldwide Sales Director of the Year Award for four(4) consecutive years while maintaining above 110 percent of my quota. I was honored with the Donald N Pritzker Award in 2014.
