

JONATHAN T. HOWE, ESQ. is the President and Founding Partner of Howe & Hutton, Ltd., a law firm with offices in Chicago, McLean VA and Washington, D.C. Howe & Hutton, Ltd., a law firm with offices in Chicago, Illinois and Washington, D.C. representing clients worldwide, specializes in the complete representation of individuals firms and not-for-profit organizations, including trade associations, professional societies and other related organizations

Mr. Howe has written hundreds of articles, papers and books, and has spoken to organizations all over the world on all manner of legal issues. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree majoring in diplomatic history and international political science with honors from Northwestern University and his Juris Doctorate with highest distinction from Duke University.

He serves as general counsel for Meeting Professionals International. He also is general counsel for the prestigious Association Committee of 100 sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. He is a founder, past President and board member of the Academy of Hospitality Industry Attorneys and was the inaugural recipient of the Academy Hospitality Industry Attorney of the Year. He is the legal editor for Meetings & Conventions and The Meeting Professional. He is the special advisor to the American Bar Association Standing Committee on Meetings and Travel and also served as the first chair of the Convention Industry Council APEX panel on industry contracts.

He has received numerous industry awards including the MPI Industry Award, President's Award from the Religious Conference Management Association, and the Hotel & Sales Marketing Association International Pace Setters Award among others. He is a fellow of the American Society of Association Executives and he is continually recognized as one of the most influential people in the meetings industry. He has published numerous articles and spoken all over the world on all manners of legal topics. He was honored as "Associate Member of the Year" by the Association Forum of Chicagoland and Chicago Tribune named him "Mr. Association Lawyer."